Congressman Blumenauer and Jin Zidell, author and founder of the Blue Planet Run Project, visited area schools to discuss the importance of providing clean drinking water throughout the world. Congressman Blumenauer introduced the Senator Paul Simon Water for the World Act , legislation that would help provide up to 100 million people with clean drinking water by 2015, earlier this year.

Congressman Blumenauer and Mr. Zidell answer questions at Sunnyside Environmental Middle School