WASHINGTON, DC-Tomorrow, Congressman Earl Blumenauer, together with Bianca Jagger and other human rights advocates will host a congressional staff and press briefing to discuss efforts to provide assistance to unintended victims of the Afghan war. This spring, Blumenauer and several other Members of Congress requested that the Foreign Operations Appropriations Subcommittee provide assistance to unintended victims of the Afghan war.