PORTLAND, OR - Tomorrow, U.S. Senator Joseph Lieberman of Connecticut and U.S. Representative Earl Blumenauer will meet with union leaders and employees of PGE who lost their 401K retirement funds when the corporation Enron collapsed. Senator Lieberman chairs the Senate Governmental Affairs Committee, which is actively investigating the implosion of Enron. The session will focus on the economy, pension reform and Enron. Members of the press are invited to attend the meeting.

What: Listening session with PGE employees on pension reform, Enron and the economy

Who: U.S. Senator Joseph Lieberman U.S. Representative Earl Blumenauer PGE employees and union leaders who lost their 401K retirement funds after the Enron collapse

When: Thursday, February 21, 2002 2:30-3:15 PM, Listening Session 3:15-3:30 PM, Press Availability

Where: The Oregon Room 2 World Trade Center 121 SW Salmon