

A caucus is a group of legislators with shared interest in an issue. Caucus members introduce legislation, educate other members of congress, and are public advocates for the issue they champion.

Since coming to Congress in 1996, Congressman Blumenauer has joined many caucuses. He is especially involved with these Caucuses:

- The Congressional Bike Caucus
- The Public Broadcasting Caucus
- The Unexploded Ordnance \(UXO\) Caucus
- The Livable Communities Task Force
- Congressional Progressive Caucus
- Friends of Thailand Caucus
- Library of Congress Caucus
- Neuroscience Caucus
- Trails Caucus
- Passenger Rail Caucus

Here is a list of all caucuses of which Congressman Blumenauer is a member:

Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Caucus

LGBT Equality Caucus

Sustainable Energy and Environment Coalition

National Guard and Reserve Component Caucus

Friends of Animals Caucus

Historic Preservation Caucus

Coalition on Adoption

Fitness Caucus

Bosnia Caucus

Korea Caucus

Diabetes Caucus

Caucus to Control and Fight Methamphetamine

Human Rights Commission

House Oceans Caucus

Internet Caucus

Congressional Asian and Pacific American Caucus

Dem Caucus Congressional Taskforce on Seniors

Wild Salmon Caucus

High Performance Building

Congressional Human Trafficking Caucus

Congressional Land Conservation Caucus

Urban Caucus

Wine Caucus

Small Brewers Caucus

Quality Care Caucus