

Washington, D.C.—This weekend, while home for the congressional winter recess, Congressman Earl Blumenauer (D-Ore.) will host a public forum on airport issues, speak at the Community Cycling Center bike giveaway and read to kids at Oregon Literacy Inc.'s "Season's Readings" event.

Blumenauer starts the weekend hosting a Saturday morning public forum on airport issues to discuss the economic, environmental and community impacts of Portland International Airport. On Sunday he will help give away bikes at the Community Cycling Center's annual holiday bike giveaway. Later on Sunday he will read The Best Christmas Pageant Ever by Barbara Robinson, at Oregon Literacy Inc.'s "Seasons Readings" Event to promote literacy.

To follow is Blumenauer's public schedule for this weekend, December 13 and 14th:

Saturday, December 13

9:00 AM

Airport Issues Forum

Room 294-8 Smith Union

Portland State University

Sunday, December 14

12:30 PM

Community Cycling Center Bike Giveaway

Legacy Emanuel Hospital

501 N. Graham

Sunday, December 14

2:00 PM

Oregon Literacy Project

Season's Readings

Doubletree – Downtown Portland

310 SW Lincoln Street