

Congressman Blumenauer met with the incoming class of American Leadership Forum of Oregon (ALF). The focus of this statewide organization is to strengthen leaders and improve leadership skills promoting collaborative problem solving and diversity of background, race and geography.

Blumenauer, a member of the founding class of ALF, welcomed Class 27 at Marylhurst College. "The political backdrop for your year is unprecedented. While there are deeper divisions and more polarization than ever before, this is a very exciting time. I know we can make progress. You have an opportunity to work together, improving your leadership skills that will benefit all of Oregon."
